

BRITISH
LAW CENTRE

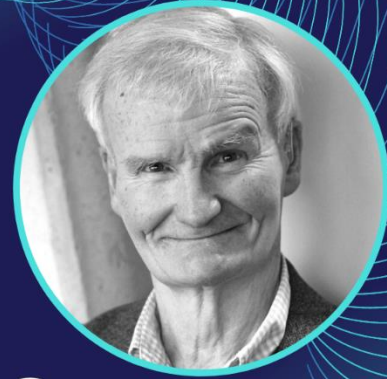

FACULTY OF LAW AND ADMINISTRATION
UNIVERSITY OF WARSAW

2nd-3rd September 2022

Modern challenges of IP law

CONFERENCE IN MEMORY OF PROFESSOR WILLIAM CORNISH (UNIVERSITY OF CAMBRIDGE)

Modern challenges of IP law.
Conference in memory of Prof. William Cornish
Warsaw, 2nd – 3rd September 2022
Auditorium A3, Collegium Iuridicum II, UW WPiA (ul. Lipowa 4)

TIMETABLE

DAY 1: Friday, 2nd September

8.45-9.15

Coffee

9.15-9.45

Opening remarks

9.45-10.30

Keynote speech

Maciej Szpunar, Court of Justice of the EU (First Advocate-General)

Internet challenges to IP Law – remarks on the recent case law of CJEU

Panel 1: IP in the digital environment

Chair: Robert Burrell (Oxford University)

10.30-10.50

Christophe Geiger (Luiss Guido Carli University, Rome)

The Replacement of Copyright by AI when regulating online content, or why the Answer to the Machine should (still) not be in the Machine

10.50-11.10

Petra Žiková (Charles University, Prague)

The music industry's perspective on implementation of the Directive on Copyright in the digital single market

11.10-11.30

Aline Larroyed (Maastricht University)

When Translations Shape Legal Systems: How Misguided Translations Impact Users and Lead to Inaccurate Transposition – The Case of 'Best Efforts' Under Article 17 DCDSM

11.30-11.45

Q&A

11.45-12.15

Coffee

Panel 2: Patent law and design/TM law

Chair: Emily Hudson ((King's College London)

12.15-12.35

Krystyna Szczepanowska-Kozłowska (University of Warsaw)

Unitary Patent Court – how it will affect European patent law?

12.35-12.55

Andrew Johnston (University of Warwick)

Beyond Patent Law: driving innovation through corporate governance reform

12.55-13.15

Anna Tischner (Jagiellonian University, Kraków)

Spare Parts, Repairs, Trade Marks and Consumer Understanding - reflections in the context of the Polish referral in C-334/22 Audi

13.15-13.30

Q&A

13.30-14.45

Lunch

Panel 3: Overlaps and horizontal issues of IP

Chair: Krystyna Szczepanowska-Kozłowska (University of Warsaw)

14.45-15.05

Martin Senftleben (University of Amsterdam)

Intellectual Property Overlaps – Towards a new approach with the help of Bill Cornish

15.05-15.25

Ansgar Ohly (University of Oxford, University of Munich)

Functionality in Flux: functional product features in EU copyright, trade mark and design law

15.25-15.45

Răzvan Dincă (University of Bucharest)

Valuing damages in IP infringement cases

15.45-16.00

Q&A

16.00-16.15

Coffee

Panel 4: Brexit and Trade mark law

Chair: Steve Terrett (British Law Centre)

16.15-16.35

Justine Pila (University of Oxford)

IP Law after Brexit

16.35-16.55

Michael Handler (University of New South Wales)

Rethinking Trade Mark Tarnishment

16.55-17.25

Jennifer Davis (University of Cambridge) and Łukasz Żelechowski (University of Warsaw)

Bad faith, public policy, and morality: how general concepts shape trade mark protection

17.25-17.40

Q&A

DAY 2: Saturday, 3rd September

9.00-9.30

Coffee

Panel 5: Copyright law

Chair: Michael Handler (University of New South Wales)

9.30-9.50

Emily Hudson (King's College London)

The Quotation Exception: from the law in books to the law in action

9.50-10.10

Wojciech Jan Machała (University of Warsaw)

Fair Dealing, Fair Use, Permitted Use: a difference in wording or in approach to limitations of copyright?

10.10-10.30

Johanna Gibson (Queen Mary, London)

Temporal parts and free space: An anecdotal explanation of IP and the metaverse, or, how I met Bill Cornish

10.30-10.45

Q&A

10.45-11.00

Coffee

Panel 6: Cross-border impact on IP protection of regional developments and laws

Chair: Robert Burrell (University of Oxford)

11.00-11.20

Daniel Benoliel (University of Haifa)

IP and Trump-era New Mercantilism

11.20-11.40

Adam Łazowski (University of Westminster)

Exporting EU IP law to neighbouring countries. Does the Brussels effect really work?

11.40-12.00

Van Anh Le (University of Oxford)

The Soviet legacy in Vietnam's IP law

12.00-12.15

Q&A

12.15-13.00

Eleanor Sharpston (former Advocate-General, Court of Justice of the EU)

Summary Keynote Speech: Bill Cornish – the wider picture

13.00-13.15

Prof. Robert Burrell (University of Oxford)

Closing remarks